1937 Oscar Ceremonies

An historic landmark, the Millennium Biltmore Hotel has been home to presidents, kings and Hollywood celebrities since it opened in 1923. The hotel was host to the founding banquet for the Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, and was the location of the conception of the Oscar award.

Upon your arrival, you will be mesmerized by the ornate columns, vivid frescoes, rich history and contemporary luxury prominent throughout the hotel.

With old-world charm and the elegance of grand European hotels, the Biltmore is conveniently located in the heart of downtown Los Angeles, amidst the city's business, financial and cultural centers.

With easy freeway access, and a short thirty minute ride from the LAX and Burbank airports, the Millennium Biltmore is the ultimate combination of modern convenience and historical luxury.

Accommodations at the hotel are plush, tranquil, distinctive and charming. You'll love the luxury and comfort evident in every aspect of the Millennium Biltmore Hotel.

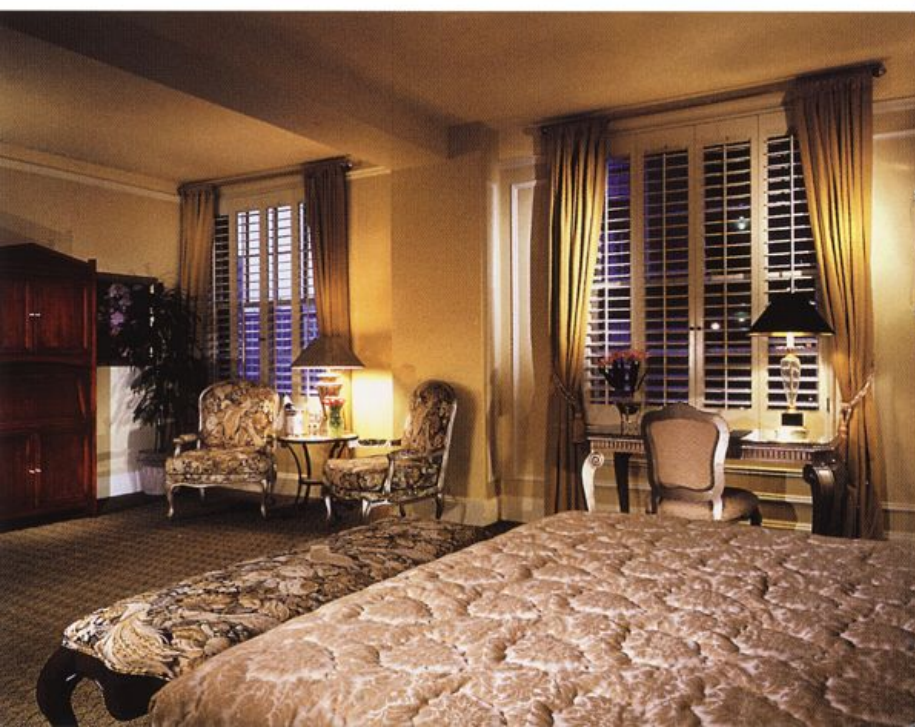

When you stay in one of our redesigned 683 rooms and suites, you'll appreciate the special touches and array of guest services that we provide.

The Millennium Biltmore has 27 suites, ranging from one to three bedrooms, and 28 executive suites – ideal for business travelers. Each of our luxurious suites is distinctive in style and boasts such features as a grand piano, a spiral staircase, or an antique private elevator.

In addition, you'll love being pampered by the added amenities and services of our Club level accommodations.

With striking elegance and grand ambience, the dining choices we offer are a mélange of culinary delights – a literal plethora of pleasures to suit your every desire.

The Gallery Bar and Cognac Room, an elegant lounge offering fine wine, exclusive liqueurs and signature drink, "Black Dahlia"; and Grand Avenue Sports Bar, one of downtown's hottest sports bars, offering great food and drinks.

The Millennium Biltmore Hotel has something to satisfy every person and palate.

Sai Sai, recognized as the best Japanese restaurant in downtown LA, offers traditional to contemporary Japanese cuisine; Smeraldi's Restaurant, offering California cuisine in a casual atmosphere perfectly suited for every meal; Rendezvous Court offers light snacks, cocktails and traditional afternoon tea in an ornate Rococo surrounding.

From banquets to formal balls, exhibits to special meetings, an event held in any of our distinctive rooms is nothing short of exquisite and dazzling.

The Millennium Biltmore Hotel, a recipient of the Successful Meetings Pinnacle Award, features more than 70,000 square feet of beautiful meeting and banquet space.

Our facilities, considered the city's most elegant, include three ballrooms, a carpeted exhibition center and 17 banquet and meeting rooms. For outdoor functions we offer nearby Pershing Square, which accommodates over 3,000 people.

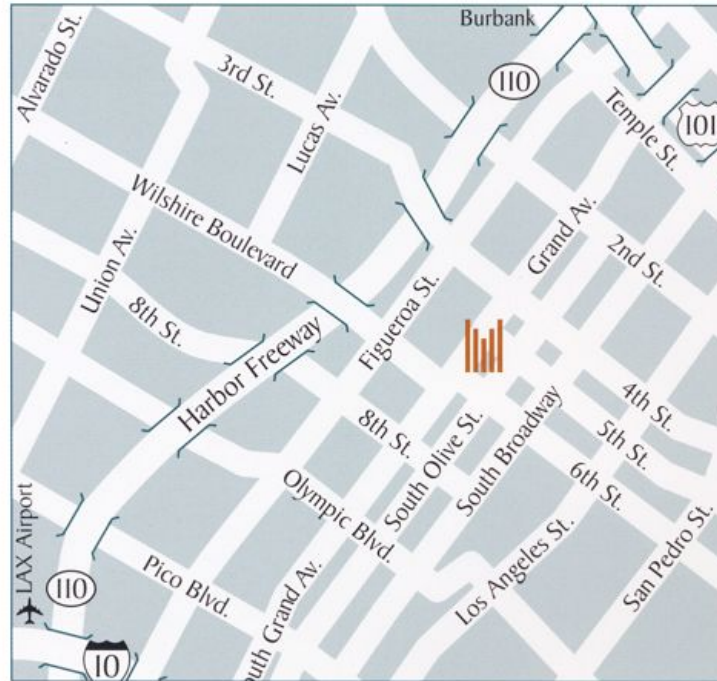

The Millennium Biltmore Health Club is just one of the pleasures that await your arrival. Our full-service club features a Roman-style indoor swimming pool, whirlpool, steam room, sauna, Jacuzzi™, and massage.

You'll appreciate the full array of services that refresh the mind as well as the body.

The Millennium Biltmore has provided a dramatic setting for hosting heads of state, royalty and celebrities from around the world – we look forward to being your premiere choice, too.
